

Nov 9, 1862

1912 Dates J-BK

The MONITOR

The first successful ironclad in the history of the U.S. Built by John Ericsson at Greenpoint, L.I. And launched January 30, 1862.

Commanded by Lieutenant John L. Worden when she engaged the Virginia (the converted merrimack) in an indecisive battle of 4 hours. On Dec. 1862, she sank in a wind storm while on her way to Beaufort, N. C.

1862

1912 Dates J-BK

(1824-1886) WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK

American General. Born Montgomery Co., Pa.
Graduated West Point (1846). Served in Mexican War (1847). In Dept of War as quartermaster and Assistant Adjutant General (1848-1855)

Captain (1853). Served in border troubles
Chief Quartermaster on Pacific Coast (1857-1860)
Brigadier General of Volunteers (1861) in Army of Potomac. In action at Williamsburg, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville,

Gettysburg where he repulsed the famous charge of Pickett & Pettigrew. In Wilderness and at Petersburg. Major general of volunteers (1862) Brigadier Gen of Regular Army (1864). Major General
1866. In command (1866 to 1880) in Missouri, Dakota and of military division of the Atlantic. Democratic nominee for President in 1880 but was defeated.

one of greatest of Federal Generals.

March 1862

Confed Gen. Beauregard had been persuaded to leave Virginia and go to the south west to the aid of Confed Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston thus an army of 40,000 Confeds
was collected at Corinth

Mar 1862

The government of Great Britain was guilty of culpable negligence in permitting (Mar 1862) the sailing of the FLORIDA, a vessel equipped for war, which had been built in Liverpool for the service of the Confederates.

March 11, 1862

Halleck was appointed sole command of U.S. forces in the West.

Assumed command Mar 13.
and restored Grant to the active command of the Army of Tennessee,
from which he had been temporarily suspended.

Mar 13, 1862

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle: New Madrid

Union Paper	defeated	Gantt & Stearns
w/ 20,000		w/ 9,000
loss 557		loss 500

Mar. 13, 1862

1912 Dates J-BK

NEW MADRID, MO.

When the Confederates at Columbus, KY heard of the fall of Ft. Donelson, they moved to New Madrid, Mo, a well defended position under General McCOWN. On Mar 13, 1862 General Pope with an Army of 20,000 men and several heavy guns, began an active bombardment which forced the garrison to abandon

New Madrid And Retreat to Island No. 10

July 1, 1862

Union Forces checked
Confederates at Malvern
Hill

June 30, 1862

Confederates fought at Frazar's Farm

June 29, 1862

Confederates under Gen. Lee failed to stop Union drive
at Savage's Station

June 27, 1862

Confederates broke Union resistance at Sauer's Mill.

June 26, 1862

Confederates defeated.

were severely

June 26 - July 2, 1862

Seven Days battles

Week-long Confederate counter-offensive near Richmond, Va. ending Peninsular Campaign in U.S. Civil War

1862

Jan Hist

Armenia

Grant's general order No. 11;
first Jewish military chaplain.

1862

Jew Heit

Zionism

Moses Hess published
ROM und Jerusalem